TRAINING TIPS:
SHOULDERS, STRONG LIKE ATLAS!

BY M. KASTEN

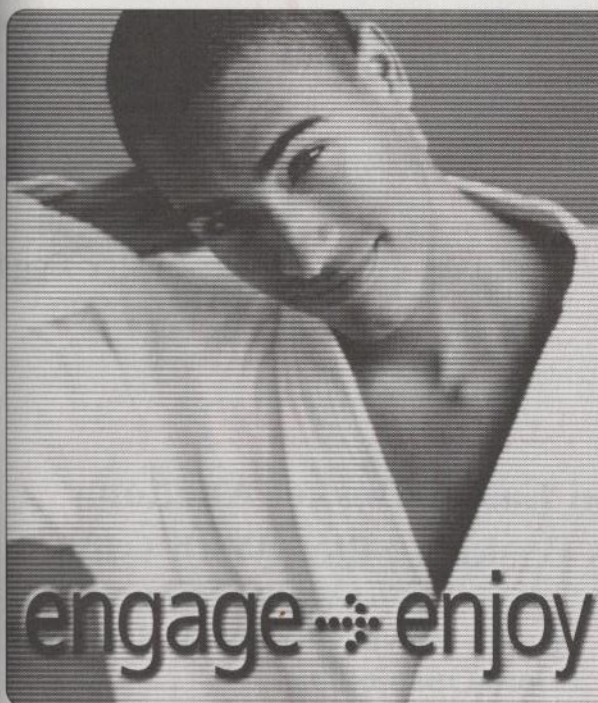

The shoulders are the most misunderstood muscle groups in the human body. They also are the most injured when it comes to gym induced injuries. Ask anyone who frequents a gym, and works about all body parts (not just the mouth) and they will inevitably report a shoulder injury at one time in their personal history. To work out the shoulders effectively and efficiently with a high degree of safety is no easy task. Shoulder workouts require precision and careful attention. To better understand your body, let's talk anatomy for a moment. The main muscles in the shoulder are the deltoids. They compromise three smaller muscles located to the front, middle and rear of the shoulder. They are the anterior, medial and posterior deltoids respectively. These three muscles originate (what we call the origin) around the clavicle (collar bone), acromium (located between the collar bone and the shoulder blade) scapula (shoulder blade). Each of these muscles insert (we call the insertion) on the upper arm or humerus. The shoulders are responsible for the widest range of motion the body can possibly perform. It is the most mobile joint in the entire body. The deltoids are responsible for shoulder abduction (moving the upper arm out to the side, away from the body), shoulder flexion (lifting the upper arm forwards and upwards), and shoulder extension (backwards and upward movements of the upper arm). Although mobile, it is rather unstable and requires substantial stabilization from the muscles that surround it. The various heads of the deltoids work in conjunction with other muscles that originate in the back and chest so the shoulder is able to act with a plethora of movements. The shoulder muscles often miss out on even, well planned out training and as a result, are not usually strong enough to deal with the stresses and strains we place on them.

When you guys exercise your chest and back and neglect your shoulders, your head is down a road to injury. Weak deltoids make the surrounding muscles over stressed. When they can't take it anymore, an injury occurs. Only then will you appreciate the need to strengthen the deltoids. Or maybe I can convince you. Here are my favorite shoulder exercises that will build strength, mass and flexibility to the deltoids. Remember; perform all movements slow and deliberate. Concentrate on your form. Don't throw the weights. If you find yourself flinging the dumbbells, you are probably using too much weight. Flinging weights does nothing for you, except increasing the chances of you making a trip to the orthopedist. Ok so we all know that shoulder presses, with dumbbells or a barbell is and excellent exercise for the shoulders. Also, side raises and front raises all can help develop a strong healthy shoulder joint if they are performed in conjunction with simple rotator cuff exercises. These are external shoulder rotation, internal shoulder rotation and superior rotation exercises. External shoulder rotation can be performed by grabbing a very light weight (maybe 2 pounds) lie on your side holding the weight in your uppermost hand. Bending your elbow so it forms a 90-degree angle and make sure your upper arm is close to your side at all times. Lower the weight towards the floor. Slowly lift the weight towards the ceiling, making sure that your elbow stays locked to your body. Hold the top position for a second, then lower again to the initial position. Pause, repeat until you can not lift anymore. You will be surprised at the intensity of this exercise, even with minimal weight it can be excruciating at times but at the same time, very beneficial.

For internal rotation, lie on your side holding a dumbbell in your lowermost hand. Bend your elbow 90 degrees and keep your elbow close to your body. Lower the weight so that your forearm is parallel to the floor. Slowly lift the dumbbell towards your body. Hold the top position before slowly lowering the weight. Remember; maintain a bent elbow and ensure that your upper arm is close to your side at all times. For superior rotation, lie on your stomach over a bench where your arms will not touch the floor. An incline bench is a good idea or you can lay on a decline bench reversed. Hold a dumbbell in one hand. Bend your elbow to 90 degrees and lift your upper arm so that it is parallel to the floor and the hand holding the dumbbell is pointing straight down. Ensuring that your upper arm remains still, lift the dumbbell so that your forearm is parallel to the ground. Make sure that you maintain an angle of 90 degrees at the elbow joint. Please remember to perform these exercises in an over exaggerated, slow manner and use very light weight. These exercises are designed to build strength with the connective tissues surrounding the shoulder. They are therapeutic in nature (used by physical therapists) and at the same time build strength. If you do them correctly, you will be taking care of two things at once. You can strengthen your shoulders and insure yourself against injury in the future. Wishing you the best of luck in your quest for the best for yourself! Questions, comments, suggestions? E-mail MKWORKOUT@AOL.COM.

If it's track-oriented dance music that you like, then you owe it to yourself to discover HYPERTROPHY. This group garnered massive attention on the import scene beginning about 3 years ago. Subsequently, the act was signed in the US to TOMMY BOY SILVER LABEL which lead to more hits with "Beautiful Day", "Eternal Flames", and "Pullover."

To Celebrate the release of the label's first compilation release PLANET DANCE, they have decided to release the group's very first single "Just Come Back 2 Me." This record was a #1 import during it's initial outing and new remixes by FRIBURN and URIC add a fresh new twist to the package. So grab this puppy up as a single or on the compilation PLANET DANCE. Incidentally, the compilation is mixed by former Texan (Houston and San Antonio) DJ RICH P. You go boy!

More tracks... over the past year there has been a new name to come up over and over again, and it's PLASMIC HONEY (the team of Sat Basile, Christian Gambella) Check out their body of work on the JELLYBEAN release of PLASMIC HONEY: WELCOME TO THE CLUB. This CD comes mixed by ANTHONY ACID and contains 9 slammers that are certain to get any party going right.

If you are looking for a healthy dose of good house music, look no further that F-111's new compilation DJ FEELGOOD presents the F-111 HOUSE SESSION. WHEW!! It comes with 14 tracks in all this CD moves through some really sweet vibes like FAZE Action "Moving Cities", MOLOKO's "Sing It Back", two tracks from ORGY and a bevy of mixes done by the likes of JASON JINX, DJ DAN, BAD BOY BILL, and more....quite lovely!!!

Centaur is out with a smart progressive compilation GLOBAL GROOVE: EDGE. This amazing set, which introduces Montreal's top circuit spinner Mark Anthony to U.S. audiences, is packed with non-stop, FULL 12" LENGTH dance anthems that you won't find on every other set. Anthony's got some incredible exclusives here and it's the ones that you DON'T know that are going to impress you the most! Tracks: INNER VISION featuring MELANIE DANIELS/ Don't You Ever Give Up On Me, CATAPILA/ Void (I Need You), BEDROCK / Heaven Scent, YELLO/ Squeeze Please, SANDSTORM/ The Return Of Nothing, CASS vs SLIDE/ Diablo, SKYNET UK/ Holdin' On, LYTER & THE PEACE POSSE/ Magnificat, PRESENCE featuring SHARA NELSON/ Sense Of Danger, SOLAR STONE/ Seven Cities. Hot progressive synthy stuff the whole way through!

Oooh... and finally the JOHNATHAN PETER's remix of the JON SECADA "Stop!" record is here!! While the PABLOS remix that seems to have set the world's circuit party boys on fire. It's an epic, sweeping, pure-circuit affair that blends just enough of the originals sizzle (those gorgeous flamenco guitars, the full, passionate male vocal, etc) with incredible new synth lines that'll knock you on your booty!

And one more that's too good to pass up... TRISHA YEARWOOD "You're Where I Belong" (Motown-Australia). The much sought-after SOUL SOLUTION mixes are out but you will have to work for it!!! This import comes on CD only unless we have been misin-

STARSCOPE

BY CHARLENE LICHTENSTEIN

The Sun glides into sensual Taurus this week after a month in energetic, domineering Aries. What a break! Let's us this sultry time to redefine who we are, what we want out of life and who we want to out it with.

TAURUS (APRIL 21 - MAY 21)

You are in your glory when the sun enters your own sign. Queer Taureans can make their dreams come true as all eyes turn their way. Give it the best shot you've got, compadre. This is the time of year to begin new things, meet new folks and harness new energies. It's also time for a spring sprucing up. Polish those horns, Bull, you want to make the best possible first impression.

GEMINI (MAY 22 - JUNE 21)

Pink Twins are glorified when the sun transits Taurus. Your mind is open and clear and you feel almost intuitive and spiritually cleansed. Rub that crystal ball and see what you can divine, or, even better, rub a friend's. This is also an excellent time to reduce stress through yoga or meditation. Posing naked in the window maximizes feng shui... or something like that!

CANCER (JUNE 22 - JULY 23)

Friends come out of the woodwork when the magnificent Sun enters jolly Taurus. You become the center of the convivial circle and will have to learn to parcel out your time judiciously to keep up with demand. Lucky thing! Queer Crabs mustn't waste time holing up in their shell alone. Hole up with a bevy of pals and make it a year to remember. Heck, make it a decade.

LEO (JULY 24 - AUGUST 23)

Sun in steady Taurus gives all proud Leos the tenacity to go the distance in their careers. Good thing too; You may have begun to feel like it was time for a something new. Changes and moves are possible now, but great advances can also be garnered right where you are. Pick and choose, my choosy friend. You deserve the best, even if you don't always work hard enough for it :)

VIRGO (AUGUST 24 - SEPTEMBER 23)

It doesn't take a genius to know that the Sun in Taurus is a perfect time for gay Virgins to expand their knowledge and improve their brainpower through coursework and travel. Surround yourself with new stimuli and learn a thing or two, compadre. (No names please!) Any legal entanglements should untangle now. Show your briefs and rest your case.

LIBRA (SEPTEMBER 24 - OCTOBER 23)

Hot pink Libras get even hotter when steamy Sun enters sensual Taurus. Venus, the planet of love, is ruled by both Libra and Taurus so this remarkable energy surge almost guarantees that you will get the lover of your wet dreams. But don't sit home and phone it in, pal. For best results, you have to shop in person. Squeeze, smell and pluck the best of the bunch.

SCORPIO (OCTOBER 24 - NOVEMBER 22)

Relationships are highlighted when the glorious Sun steps into Taurus. Queer Scorps have a tendency to get caught up in their work and personal vendettas, ignoring those around them who help make life easier. Don't take partners for granted; this is the time to show them that you care. For single scorpions, the opportunity to meet someone special is at hand. Use it.

SAGITTARIUS (NOVEMBER 23 - DECEMBER 22)

Life takes some twists and turns at work when the Sun transits Taurus. Gay Archers may find themselves eating at their desk, slowly putting on the pounds and working longer and longer hours in their drudgery. Boo hoo! Time for a change, compadre; use the affirming solar surge to get your desk cleared and your body buffed. I know you can do it, you sexy svelte thing, you.

CAPRICORN (DECEMBER 23 - JANUARY 20)

Let the music and festivities begin when the Sun joins Mars, Jupiter and Saturn in Taurus. It's time to party hearty, proud Cap, and show your inhibitions and restrictions the exit door. Even the most conservative Goats can't help but kick about now. This can also be a time of unparalleled creativity and artistic output. Do I smell a masterpiece? or perhaps stale beer?

AQUARIUS (JANUARY 21 - FEBRUARY 19)

Forget about putting off your spring cleaning any longer Aqueerian; you have just run out of excuses. Sun in Taurus overwhelmingly urges you to spruce up your surroundings and make it in tune with the true lavender you. Everything from furniture to family will have to fall into place... or else. Hip hooray, honey! You've nothing to lose but your chains and that awful old sofa.

PISCES (FEBRUARY 20 - MARCH 20)

Inspirational ideas run rampant and so should you when the expansive Sun shines in Taurus. Rainbow Fish see the landscape clearly and seem to know exactly what to say now to get events rolling in the right direction. Roll on, cousin; we are coming into a major professional life cycle for you and this is the time to advance your cause. While your at it, think "election year".

ARIES (MARCH 21 - APRIL 20)

Sun enters robust Taurus and gay Rams begin to reassess their personal values vis a vis their financial status. "All that glitters is not gold", cousin. Use the next four weeks to chart your monetary course in the framework of your deeply personal needs. If that means splurging on a hot little import, so be it. If it means socking it into an already bulging endowment, who am I to protest?

Another Mob Hit in Dallas

At the center of this self-proclaimed "Broadway Fable" are Sky Master-son (Tom Zemon), a scheming-yet-great-looking mobster who makes a seemingly unwinnable bet that he can win over prudish mission worker Sarah Brown (Heather Ayers). A host of other mobsters, including slimy Nathan Detroit (Stephen Berger), and ditzzy dames, the ditziest being Miss Adelaide (Michele Ragusa), perpetuate the complications-and the laughs.

The two biggest standouts of this proand a streamlined script, it's this one. For such an energetic pace between numbers, some of the songs themselves drag on endlessly and serve little purpose. It's the lively songs that thrill, but too many love ballads can douse that flame of excitement pretty quickly. I always admire theater companies who dare to alter a production in the name of a tighter piece. (Hmmm... Perhaps that's not the best choice of words).

Secondly, The Arts District Theater is a wonderful space, but the extension of the duction are the two leading ladies, Ayers and Ragusa. Genuine likability, impeccable timing and dynamic stage presence make these two the belles of this ball. Zemon is equally deft at his acting craft, and did I mention that he's good to look at. Oh, maybe I did. Finally, as Nicely-Nicely Johnson, Ray Friedeck also has more than a few moments in the sun.

Richard Hamburger again has successfully taken the helm of a DTC effort and made some exciting interpretations. However, despite the gifted performances and undeniably fun set design by Ming Cho Lee, there are some minor flaws. If ever a musical could use a slight rehaul stage into the audience for this production creates some awkward and potentially dangerous seating hazards, not to mention some just plain bad seats. Sort of theater-in-the-semi-round, there are often long moments of obstructed views.

All in all, however, it is a very worthwhile recipient of your time and cultural cash. Guys and Dolls continues through mid-May at the Arts District Theater, 2401 Flora Street in downtown Dallas (near the Morton H. Meyerson Symphony Center). For ticket information and showtimes, call 214-522-TIXX.

The Gay Century

by Phil Johnson
Dallas Gay and Lesbian Historic Archives

1998

February

Lawmakers in Washington state voted to over-ride Governor Gary Locke's veto of a bill banning same-sex marriages.

In Maine, voters revoked the gay rights law that lawmakers had passed the year before. The well-organized Christian Coalition had forced the issue with a referendum petition.

March

In Dallas, a Child Protective Services supervisor sought to remove an infant from the care of a foster couple who were lesbians.

A jury of Methodist ministers found Reverend Jimmy Creach innocent of disobeying church rules by performing a lesbian holy-union ceremony.

March 30

An unknown person posted a bomb threat against the Cathedral of Hope on The Dallas Morning News' online religious page. But gay Christians have been threatened all their lives. Attendance at the Sunday service was good.

April

In a rambling speech before Wisconsin's State Legislature, Green Bay Packers' star defensive lineman Reggie White attacked gays in the name of religion.

May

The Foundation of Human Understanding renamed the center, the John Thomas Gay and Lesbian Community Center the same day that Thomas announced that he was ending the life-sustaining treatments for the disease. "You can count on God to let you know when your time is up," he said.

He and community members expected death to follow within days and prayed for a miracle. Miraculously his health seemed to improve for a while. But he slowly grew weaker until on January 20, 1999, he passed the torch to you and me.

June

The torch was passed so that we could fight off people like Republican Senator Majority Leader Trent Lott who likened homosexuals to alcoholics, sex addicts and kleptomaniacs. The self-righteous Republican Dick Army called us sinners.

Thank heaven for PFLAG. The parents and friends of lesbians and gays sponsored a prom entitled Over the Rainbow GAYla for gay and lesbian teens and well-wishers. Those entering the prom gay walked past fundamentalist protesters.

Conservative Republicans walked past the Log Cabin Republicans who were protesting the exclusionist policy of the Texas Republican Party. LCR's only request was to be allowed a booth at the Ft. Worth convention.

July

In a move that could only be described as financial stupidity, the Texas State Board of Education divested itself of $4 million in Disney stock as a protest of adult-themed films by a Disney subsidiary. (Obviously for every seller there must be a buyer, so what was accomplished, except for a loss of revenue?)

Ground was broken for the Cathedral of Hope's 78-foot-tall Bell Wall that will serve as an international memorial commemorating the lives of all people who have died of AIDS. The Bell Wall was named in honor of John Thomas.

August 1-8

Gay Games V in Amsterdam - Friendship Through Culture and Sports. In addition to the athletic events, all-night parties jammed Amsterdam's narrow, ancient streets. And witnessed a floating Gay Pride Parade down the canals. Above all else, they enjoyed the open-mindedness of the Dutch people. "Amsterdam is like nowhere else on earth."

In Holland "Babies are born with opened umbrellas." It rains all the time. But someone up there must like gays because for ten days - while Texans melted in 100 degree plus temperatures - a gentle sun blessed 200,000 rabid fans and 14,500 athletes from five continents competing in 31 athletic events. "Was it a party or what!"

Unknown to history are Team Houston's statistics, but the record shows that Team Austin was the largest from the Lone Star State. Team Dallas was represented by 57 men and 2 women who won a total of 25 medals. In addition the Oak Lawn Soccer Club won a silver.

Missed by all Texans were the spirited cheerleaders of Cheer Dallas.

August

Almost 200 Long Cabin Republicans from across the nation met in Dallas for a convention. They hoped to prevent the GOP party from becoming a theocracy.

September 17

In Houston, Tyrone Garner and John Gedeas Lawrence were arrested for consensual sex in private. Supported by the Lambda Legal Defense and Education Fund, they planed a constitutional challenge to Texas's sodomy law.

October 12

Matthew Shepard died. Five days earlier the openly gay college student was lured from a bar, tied to a split-rail fence and pistol-whipped as he begged for his life. The torture continued as the 105 pound man was repeatedly burned with cigarettes. Stripped of his shoes and wallet, he was left in near-freezing temperatures before being found by a passing bicyclist 18 hours later. At the hospital doctors found Shepard's skull so badly smashed they were unable to operate. He never regained consciousness.

Who would, who could do such a thing? Two brave assassins who targeted the tiny Shepard because he was gay.

Emotions ran high. Across the nation there were memorial services, candle-light marches and calls for tougher hate-crime laws. But in Texas it was politics as usual. The James Byrd (savagely dragged to his death behind a pickup truck) proposal to strengthen hate-crime laws was blocked by Republicans who, while empathizing with the victims, made damn sure the bill never reached Governor Bush's desk where he would have to veto it.

In a letter to the Gay and Lesbian archives, the "compassionate conservatism" governor wrote, "I believe that all violent crimes are crimes of hate. But I also worry about treating one victim differently than another."

November

In Wisconsin, Tammy Baldwin, a lesbian and three-term state representative was elected to the U.S. House of Representatives, the first upfront lesbian to be elected to congress.

November 27

Twelve years after the U.S. Supreme Court ruled "There is not a constitutionally-protected right for adults to engage in private, consensual homosexual sex," Georgia's Supreme Court threw out the anti-gay statute.

December

Gay scouts have been fighting The Boy Scouts of America's exclusionary ban for more than ten years, winning some battles and losing others. Both sides always vowed to carry the fight "all the way to the Supreme Court if need be." The Supreme Court ruled in favor of straight-only Boy Scouts. 1998 ended with a victory for bigotry.

can say "Golden Girls Swimsuit Calendar." You know the drill: these sites promise you all sorts of studly miracles only to frustrate you with screen after screen of cheesy ads and invitations to spend more and more money. And no matter how horny I am, my life is too short to wait an eternity for a page to open, or to pay a small fortune to see a choppy video of two crackheads in Germany trying to get it up while hiding their scabs from the camera.

Another source of frustration for me has been that most sites I've visited are too damn hard to use. Maybe it's because I'm a creature of habit, not to mention a computer dunce, but I don't have a clue what a Java script or chat client is (nor do care to find out). And what the hell is a message rule? The only rule in my life is "no losers."

So you can imagine how surprised I was to find that your site is quick to load, easy to use and looks better designed than anything I've seen. It goes without saying that I love the photos and footage of naked men and the fact that it's all FREE. I work for myself but it's the sort of site that I would not be embarrassed to have on my computer at work.

OK, so now I look at the articles but the first time I went straight to the Profiles area to see who was online and after doing a simple search was surprised to find that there were a lots of guys within cumming distance of where I live. I was bit nervous but figured it pays to advertise so I posted a profile of my own and then proceeded to the chat rooms. Because websites like AOL are allergic even to the word "gay," I've always found that the only decent chat rooms are buried where you would never think to look.

On TheNumber.com I managed to find what I was looking for within seconds and found it easy to strike up a conversations. The first couple of times I was content to just flirt online but I've since taken the plunge, swapped numbers, and have met up with a few cuties in my area. Hell, I've even managed to find a cute plumber in the Classifieds section. I'd go as far as to say that a visit to TheNumber.com has become a daily ritual for me.

From now on I'm going to be a real cyber queen and do all my cock-shopping online. Thank you for reminding me why I hate the bar scene: I'd rather be at home having sex.

Happy Little Camper,
Fort Lauderdale (FLA)

Hey, guys. Just a quick note to let you know that I recently came across your website and I am blown away with what I've seen. At last, a great site for men interested in other men. I'm impressed.

I can't tell you the number of times I've tried to place on the Web where I know I won't be wasting my time or money. Until a friend told me about thenumber.com I was convinced that a decent gay website was as difficult to find as a top in Fort Lauderdale.

Admittedly my experience with the Internet has been pretty much limited to e-mail and AOL. But I was tired of doing searches on the words "gay" and "sex" only to be sent to some online support group for lesbian single mothers in recovery, or a so-called "hot gay site" with photos guaranteed to kill an erection faster than

Jeckyll & Hyde, the hit musical currently in its third "killer" year on Broadway, comes to Jones Hall, April 25-30, 2000. One of New York's biggest hits, Jeckyll & Hyde features a book and lyrics by two-time Academy Award-winning lyricist Leslie Bricusse and a score by Grammy Award-nominated composer Frank Wildhorn. An evocative tale of romance and the epic battle between good and evil, Jeckyll & Hyde brings new life to Robert Louis Stevenson's classic story. A whirlwind odyssey pitting man against himself is set into motion when the brilliant Dr. Jeckyll's medical experiment backfires, giving life to Edward Hyde, his evil alter ego. Ticket prices range from $30.50 to $55.00 and may be purchased at all Ticketmaster outlets. To charge-by-phone, call (713)629-3700, for groups of 20 or more, call (713)693-2692. Theater LaB Houston will present the southwest premiere of the musical comedy Zombies From The Beyond—A Musical. A camp take-off of life in the 1950's, when Cold War hysteria and the space race were the top subjects of talk. At the fictional Milwaukee Space Center in 1955, life is jeopardized when a flying saucer lands carrying a buxom alien goddess bent on procuring male specimens to re-populate her planet. Taking it's cue from B sci-fi movies, popular at the time, Zombies From The Beyond brings the 1950's nostalgically and hilariously alive with a tuneful, toe-tapping score. The show runs through May 27. Friday and Saturday performances are at 8:00 p.m. and Sunday performances at 5:00 p.m. will be staged on May 21 and 28. Tickets range from $20 to $22 and are available by calling the theater Box Office at (713)868-7516. Theatre LaB Houston is located at 1706 Alamo.

Friday, May 5 at 7:00 p.m., Sandra Bernhard will appear at The Aerial Theater in her critically acclaimed, off-Broadway, one-woman show, I'm Still Here, Dammit! Filled with Bernhard's caustic wit and unique perspective, her performance is a hip and provocative look at life and culture through the eyes of one of America's funniest and most insightful performers. Tickets are available at all Ticketmaster locations, including Fiesta, Foley's and Kroger and range in price from $36.25 to $76.25. You may also charge tickets by phone at (713)629-3700.

THAT WEEK IN TEXAS

BY ALAN GELLMAN

25 YEARS AGO
IN THE LONE STAR STATE

Twenty-five years ago, THIS WEEK IN TEXAS reported that the judges had tallied their scores and the winner of the Mr. Alligator title was Chuck Ort from Swamptrash in Dallas (current location of Throckmorton Mining Company). Following his victory, he graced our cover. You could see even more of Chuck poolside by turning the page. Another place you could see it all was at Club Dallas, which was celebrating its first anniversary.

Anyone who was anyone in Dallas in 1975 congregated for breakfast, fun and "Mother Eva" at the Trio Coffee Shop, formerly known as Ken's Kitchen, on Lemmon Avenue. Mother Eva loved the gays and was quick to tell you she made ten times as many tips from 2:00 a.m. to 4:00 a.m. as she did during the entire remainder of her shift. It was quite a scandal when new straight owners made it clear they did not want gay business and fired Eva. Some time later, Mother Eva resurfaced at the Bell Pepper, located right around the corner on McKinney Avenue. Our most vivid memory of that restaurant involved The Lady Shawn, Dallas' reigning queen of all queens. The place would be filled with hundreds of gay people, all camping and carrying on with Mother Eva and one another. Grandmotherly Eva was a 'fag hag' in her late 60's who knew all of us by name. It was a nightly ritual—in the wee hours, every morning, The Lady Shawn and her entire entourage would stumble into the eatery, high as a kite, to hold court and eat. One night, Lady Shawn, in full glorious drag, having just done a Sunday show, ordered a cheeseburger, "no pickles." Mother Eva dutifully took her order, which arrived promptly. Shawn took one look at the burger and started bitching and yelling that there was, indeed, a pickle on her sandwich. Mother Eva turned toward Shawn and silence fell over the restaurant. Mother Eva walked directly to Shawn's table, took the top off the burger, removed the offending gherkin, sent it flying across the room and shouted at the top of her lungs, "It's funny to me that you'll put a filthy fg (penis) in your mouth, but you'll bitch about a g*dn pickle. Shut up and eat!!!" The customers gave Mother Eva a standing ovation and The Lady Shawn never missed a bite. She claims to have no recollection of this episode. By the way, Shawn is still around and works at one of Dallas' top salons.

The Lady Shawn

The grand opening of The Filling Station at 1801 Richmond in Houston was announced with lots of hoopla. All the beer was free and premium well drinks were 45¢. Mr. Jan Russell was the epitome of drag during that era and, as a member of "The Fabulous Pantomaniacs", dazzled the audiences at Houston's Hi Kamp. The Second Sun on Westheimer opened an additional location called, appropriately enough, The Second Sun II on Richmond. Both discos swung to the beat of the "newest music straight from New York, Chicago, Boston, Miami and L.A." Draft beer cost 10¢ during happy hour and 50¢ the rest of the night. If your tastes ran more toward the masculine side, Houston Motorcycle Club hosted VooDoo 75 at The Spur, located at 2400 Brazos, the current home of the Brazos River Bottom.

The magazine began running a new weekly feature called Doctor's Bag. The first installment was devoted to the four stages of Syphilis, the primary health concern of gay men at the time. Another regular feature was called Discotech nique. Just as Fresh Beats does today, it spotlighted current dance hits like Jive Talkin' by the Bee Gees, the new release

Get Dancing by Disco Tex and the Sex-O-Lettes and Feel The Need In Me by The Detroit Emeralds.

El Jardin brought San Antonio onto the list of TWT supporters and was celebrating its 15th anniversary at the time. The doors remained opened until 1998 under the ownership of Leo Harper, making El Jardin the oldest club in Texas history. . . having remained open and operating under the same name for nearly 40 years. Bailey Street Wherehouse, in Fort Worth, presented the singing duet of Allen Tripp and Tom Davis. We're not sure about what ever happened to Mr. Tripp, but Tom Davis went on to become one of the most respected and admired leaders of Dallas' gay community and managed the Round-Up for many years prior to his death.

The Rio Grande Valley's Duffy's Tavern put McAllen on TWT's map of gay Texas, proclaiming that they were "the only one in the Valley." We're not clear about the elephant, either.

FIESTA 2000 KICKS OFF TEN DAY PARTY 109th Annual Celebrations Begin Tonight

SAN ANTONIO—One of America's truly great festivals, Fiesta@ San Antonio is a 10-day celebration held every April to honor the memory of the heroes of the Alamo and the Battle of San Jacinto and to celebrate San Antonio's rich and diverse cultures. This year marks the 109th celebration!

In 1891, a group of ladies decorated horse-drawn carriages, paraded in front of the Alamo, and pelted each other with flower blossoms. The Parade was organized to honor the heroes from the battles of the Alamo and San Jacinto. That original "Battle of Flowers" parade became an annual event and has grown into a multi-cultural community celebration unlike any other in our country.

From its small beginnings, Fiesta San Antonio has grown into an elaborate ten-day celebration featuring over 150 events, including a parade where floats really float down the San Antonio River.

RIVER PARADE BLOCK PARTY

April 24, 6pm to Midnight, Convent Street between Soledad and Augusta Streets

The River Parade Block Party is an exciting event for people of all ages. In its third year as an official Fiesta event, it offers the opportunity to view the River Parade as it passes under the Convent Street bridge. The event features live music from many bands for a festive background as you enjoy a variety of food, beverages, dancing, crafts and games. Proceeds from the event are used to support services provided by We Are Alive, Inc. Admission: $5 advance, $10 at gate. For tickets and further information, call (210)737-1411.

TEXAS CAVALIERS' RIVER PARADE

April 24, 7:30pm, San Antonio River

Each year, hundreds of thousands of people from all over the country line the banks of the San Antonio River to view the most unique parade in America...the Texas Cavaliers' River Parade! This year's parade "Olympic Dreams: A River of Gold" promises an evening of family fun with live music, celebrities, and lights. More than 40 festively decorated floats sponsored by local community organizations and military installations will float down the San Antonio River. Spectators will party up and down the river to the accompaniment of singers, musicians and live bands. King Antonio LXXVIII will reign over the evening's festivities and give a Texas-size welcome to the enthusiastic spectators along the winding San Antonio River. In addition to producing the River Parade, the Cavaliers support the Texas Cavaliers Charitable Foundation which, in turn, disburses funds to various charitable organizations with an emphasis of helping the children of our community. Admission: $10-$22; Tickets available in advance by calling 22-RIVER.

109th annual BATTLE OF FLOWERS® PARADE

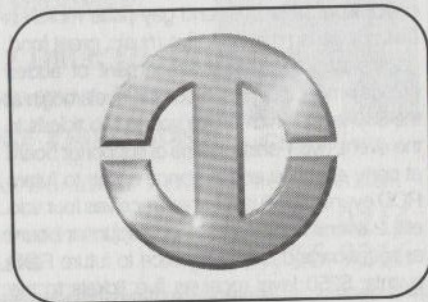

Friday, April 28, 11:30am - 12:30pm Vanguard, 12:45 p.m. Parade

The first Battle of Flowers® Parade was held in 1891 to honor the heroes of the Alamo and to commemorate the Battle at San Jacinto, April 21, 1836, where Texas won its independence from Mexico. It was planned and staged by a group of determined San Antonio women who, despite having to postpone the parade by four days due to rain, made the colorful "flower battle" a success. It was such a success, it became an annual event and the precursor to today's Fiesta San Antonio.

FIESTA FLAMBEAU PARADE

April 29, Junior Vanguard starts at 6:50pm and Parade starts at 7:35pm

The Fiesta Flambeau Parade is the largest illuminated parade in the country and is produced solely by community volunteers. The 53d Fiesta Flambeau Parade features the theme of "Reflections of the Twentieth Century". Illuminated floats, high school and military bands from throughout the U.S. and Mexico will entertain spectators along the 2.8 mile route. Leading this annual extravaganza will be the 350 member University of Texas Longhorn Marching Band. Preceding the main parade is the Flambeau Junior Parade highlighting elementary and middle school marching units and featuring clowns, costumed characters, balloon arches and more. The parade is sponsored by the Fiesta Flambeau Parade Association, a local civic, non-profit organization whose only mission is to produce, each year, the best Fiesta Flambeau Parade possible. Seating: Alamo Grandstands, Cenotaph stands; Alamo Street Bleachers-North (Travis/Houston); Alamo Street Bleachers-South (Crockett/Commerce); and Plaza Bleachers $10. Maverick Bleachers and Broadway Bleachers $8. Tickets are available at the Fiesta Commission Centralized Ticket Sales Center or North Star Mall. For information, call the Flambeau ticket line, (210) 647-1887.

That is until those hunky dancers mount the stage at 11pm for one of the hottest strip shows in Space City. Next Friday, April 28, the club will give away tickets to the Sandra Bernhard stage show I'm Still Here...Damn!, at 8, 9, 10 and 11pm, with a grand prize drawing at midnight featuring tickets, backstage passes and dinner for two at Riva's Italian Restaurant....

The Montrose Mining Company's patio will be in full swing this weekend, with ice-cold import draft and a perfect platform for people watching on Pacific. You're sure to find Mine regular Gregg [above], soaking up the view and the splendid spring weather. Superior drink specials abound all weekend and the male dancers that make you weak will be in rare form. Forget about that egg hunt, come join the man hunt with the men of The Mine, this weekend.

This past weekend, Dallas diva Lucia [left] gave an awe-inspiring performance at Houston's Mailbox. Clad only in lavender lace and a 'touch' of silicone, the lovely and talented entertainer wowed the audience and promised a return engagement very soon. Keep your eyes peeled to the pages of THIS WEEK IN TEXAS MAGA-

The Sentry Program provides volunteers to visit those who are homebound with HIV/AIDS to relieve the isolation that accompanies prolonged illness. The program is designed to relieve a caregiver from their regular care duties so that they can have a chance to shop, attend church, schedule doctor visits or just take a break. For clients without primary caregivers, volunteers offer an important new source of social contact and support. For additional information about this program, contact Craig Overstreet at (713)523-7110, ext. 119.

Therefore, TWT policy stipulates that we will not and cannot knowingly accept any advertisements suggesting solicitation. It's the law. Also, state law prohibits non-licensed massage therapists from using terms such as "massage," "Swedish," "acupressure," "Shiatsu," "reflexology," "body rub," "back rub," "body massage" or any term which indicates bodily contact.
