GROOVELINES

by DJ Chris Allen

Howdy disco citizens! It's time for your weekly dose of Groovelines — your source for what's hot and hip in the land of electronic dance music and beyond.

Apple iTunes

Over at iTunes, and hot for digital download, is the new single from David Guetta — GRRRR. Yes GRRRR. And it is absolutely grrreat! Sticking with what he does best, David Guetta offers up an awesome new full length EDM track that is guaranteed to keep your ass a shakin' on that dance floor. But wait! There is something a lil diff about this track. GRRRR is a voiceless track. And dubbly as eff. This bad ass bitch is strictly for the after-hours crowds. GRRRR owns a bit of a tech house twist while still maintaining a trance-ish progressive house edge, consistent nrg, and a solid beat. Magnificent piece. David Guetta. GRRRR. Meow!

The legendary producer / dj we call Tiesto has finally released his new full length album, Kaleidoscope. Like David Guetta, our boy Tiesto spent the summer releasing track after track, month by month, literally teasing us with his freshest infectious grooves. Well now that entire bad ass set of redunkulously impressive electronic dance music is available as a complete package. And then some. The additions you have yet to hear are deee-ish! Just buy it. Trust. Tiesto. Kaleidoscope.

My fave of the week is the latest release from Metronomy. Their new EP is called Not Made For Love. It features the songs Not Made For Love, What Do I do Now, and Do The Right Thing.

The original versions are really great. Love this band. Very clever. Off the hook music videos. With Not Made For Love, the remixes truly take this trio's art to new levels. Highlights include the nearly 12 minute epic "album only"

Leo Zero mix of Not Made For Love as well as the dubby Wild Geese remix of Do The Right Thing. Metronomy is one of the most multifaceted synth pop bands I have run across in a while. These guys cover the bases. The remixes are top notch. They have a strong web presence. Their visually stimulating music videos are forever inspiring. Priors are flawless. Catchy and infectious these boys are. Learn more at www.myspace.com/metronomy The Metronomy Wikipedia page is pretty fab too. Check them out, Metronomy. Just Google it.

Other noteworthy releases this week include the welcome addition of the Kraftwerk album catalog. I Want You Back by The Jackson 5 – the Kenny Hayes Sunshine Funk Remix, really luvn the Splitting the Atom EP from Massive Attack, we totally dig What Up Y'All from Crookers, and Take It Down by Bart B More – the Edu Imbermon remix. Grrreat stuff. You'll find those floor fillers and more online at iTunes.

You can hear me play these mentioned hits and more at South Beach & Meteor in Houston and at Halo in Bryan/College Station. Be sure to tune into Hypersonic Radio every Saturday night at 10 pm on 101X in Austin or stream it live on the web at www.hypersonicradio.com. The EDM mix show of central Texas. For more info on these and all other upcoming DJ C.A. events and happenings head on over to www.djca.us. Stalk my every move at twitter.com/groovelines, Loopt, MySpace, and Facebook.

A quick reminder for all of you electronic and dance music acts and producers who have product available to purchase online - send me your tracks and / or your e.p.k. to djca.groovelines@yahoo.com. If it kicks ass then I'll let the world know. Let me have it Texas! Send me your best. I dare you.

Deep in the heart of Texas, that is the Groovelines for now. You know the golden rule boys and girls - play it loud and disturb the neighbors! The scene can only grow and thrive if we participate in it folks. It exists because we make it so. Be active, support your local talent. Buy, don't share.

Remember, life might not always be the party you had hoped for, but while you're here you might as well dance.

Also Headlining this year is internationally-known singing star, Tiffany!

The "I Think We're Alone Now" Girl recently finished up a starring "role" in VH1's Celebrity Fit Club where she ended up losing 30 pounds and got down to her Playboy weight. Needless to say it gathered her an avalanche of press from the cover of "In Touch" Magazine, radio to television show like the Tyra Banks show, Entertainment Tonight and the Insider TV shows.

Her new CD, "Just Me," (which was recently released) on 10 SpotRecords, (Universal Distribution) delivers a blend of pop and rock in a singer-songwriter style with a little country thrown into the mix. The first single and video from the album is the uptempo smash hit called "Feels Like Love."

PRIDE GUILD!

Gal Pride '09 – Oct 23 til Oct 25

by Chris Allen

"Galveston Pride returns stronger than ever after Hurricane Ike obliterated much of the island in 2008. Pop sensation Tiffany headlines Galveston Pride 2009, Oct. 24 at Saengerfest Park. The red-haired diva will be joined by, for a day of island festivities, Derrick Barry, Kady Malloy, AJ Cabrera and Jay Arseno.

Galveston Pride is the brainchild of Laura Villagrán and Angela Snell, publishers of the Gay Yellow Pages directory and the website GayIslander.com. Charity partner the Osito Foundation (ositofoundation.org) distributes teddy bears to children impacted by HIV/AIDS and later offers social support and health services. They will be on hand at the festival. Parties are scheduled throughout the weekend, and the festival will feature vendor booths, food and drinks."

The official hotel for Galveston Pride is the Victorian Hawthorne Suites located at 6300 Seawall Blvd, just west of 61st Street. This hotel rocks. It is secure, there's a store, a pool, a hot tub, and nearly every room has a view of the gulf. The deal? Only $99/night for rooms that sleep 4 or 6 people! Call 1-800-231-6363, and ask for ext. 2282 (Galveston Pride Rates). Rooms are limited, so hurry. Quite nice.

FRIDAY NIGHT

Gal Pride '09 officially kicks off Friday night, October 23rd at 3rd Coast Beach Bar, located at 3102 Seawall Blvd., with your hosts Special K from 104 KRBE and Toddicus from Guava Lamp & H-town's '09 Pride Parade Shelby St. John and Kara & Tara Dion will be performing that night, with special guest Cora Kadette from College Station. Rumor has it all of the next day's star entertainers will be hanging out and partying it up with the locals. The Osito Foundation will be there with a table selling VIP armbands for $20.00. VIP armbands will get you into the next day's meet and greet with all of the festival entertainers. According to Angela Snell, "all funds will be split between Osito and Pride." VIP's will be able to get items autographed and take pics with the stars of the show. Should be great time.

After the party at 3rd Coast, when ya find yourself hungry, head over to 3600 Seawall Blvd. to the good old Dutch Kettle. It is right next door to the Commodore Inn, just down the street from 3rd Coast. This 24 hour dive has some of the best late night greasy spoon grub ever!

Also, we must add, that if you find yourself to tipsy to drive – trust one of the local cab companies like Yellow Cab to get ya from bar to bar or back to your hotel safe and sound. Their number is 409-763-3333. Put in your phone just in case. Right now actually. There are some pretty hot cops on the force in Galveston but getting pulled over and arrested for DWI is a really lousy way to meet one.

SATURDAY AFTERNOON

Upon waking Saturday morning, be sure to allow time for a light brunch and a your required stroll on the Seawall. You're at the beach! Gotta make a point to take in the view and wiggle your toes in the sandy water. Feel the gulf wind in your hair. If only for a moment. After all that, around noon, proceed to Saengerfest Park in the historic Strand district of downtown Galveston for Pride Fest 2009!

This year's festival will be hosted by Ernie Manouse and Toddicus. Local entertainers David Pashall, CC Ryder, Misty Valdez, and Carmen Cantu will be performing throughout the afternoon. VIP armbands will be available at the festival. The main entertainers will hit the stage beginning at 1 pm with headliner Tiffany going on at 7 pm. Gal Pride is a free family friendly all ages welcome event. Bring your kids, your dog, your other, your pals, whoever - and have a great time. There will be plenty of shopping and people watching opps all day long alongside the flawless entertainment the show producer Joey Guera, with the Houston Chronicle, has lined up for you all so be sure to hit the atm on the way there.

THE PERFORMERS

So before we take a look at all the post-festival activities occurring all over the island let's take a look at the entertainers and their support, starting with the most important person in the whole bunch - the sound guy. Without him, it'd be awful quiet.

Matthew Eaton - Ampe Productions

Matt decided to start up his own sound production company, Ampe Productions, this year to offer affordable and professional engineering to bands. He started running sound about 12 years ago at his church, proceeded to work at his high school and then started working more with local bands in college. Matt has been building and running lighting shows for about 6 years.

Matt says, "When I run sound my goal is to make the show sound as closely to a cd as possible. Even though this is impossible, it is what I strive for and therefore, shows that I run are of the highest caliber. For Galveston Pride, we will be pumping over 15,000 watts of music through the Strand on October 24th. Along with the sound equipment, we will be bringing out a lighting system to give a fun and exciting atmosphere throughout the day."

Jay Arseno

"Just when you think the music industry is a wrap, something new blossoms. Jay began his career as a singer in a church choir and musical theatre in his native Baton Rouge, Louisiana. He is a passionate, true artist with emotional expression. He is a writer, a producer, a performer."

Earlier this year Jay Arseno released a rather magnificent new album titled From The Ashes. It is an incredible collection of pop and alternative rock songs. All the songs are radio ready. Each one a potential hit. Jay's blending of pop, urban, world, electronic, jazz, and rock is well balanced and incredibly catchy. The hooks are super friendly. His lyrics are relatable and very often quite moving. His voice is mature, controlled, and stirring. His range off the hook. Jay Arseno is very powerful singer. There is not a single dislikable track on the entire album. Hard to pick a favorite. Jay's first single off the album, Take It From The Ashes, was released in March of 2009 on iTunes. More than likely you will easily identify with the song. "It applies to everyone, although Jay admittedly states that it may be somewhat autobiographical. "It draws on the legend of the Phoenix, in that it's about starting over, a rebirth, a trial through fire where you come out on the other side with a fresh start." The mission statement of the single is simple: No matter what you go through in life, you can always pick yourself up, gather all the pieces together and keep moving forward." The innovative music video for Take It From The Ashes is viewable on MySpace and YouTube. Another stand out track on From The Ashes is the song Season Of Love. This emotion provoking power ballad will take hold of your heart and run with it. Might even get a tear or two out of ya. And that part after the breakdown, where the chorus kicks back in, damn. Put your lighters up folks. Season Of Love has the potential to become a huge hit. With the right remixers, this one could be a massive dance floor anthem. Jay offers up some ready for the dance floor worthiness with the upbeat and inspiring song Shine. Another track that is radio ready. While conveying a message of positivity and love, Shine truly showcases Jay's diverse ability as a vocalist. Other stand out tracks include This Is Love and Fire! and Release Me. Jay Arseno's album From The Ashes was produced by hit maker Troy "RADIO" Johnson (Chris Brown, Blake Lewis) and I-ROC (Happy Madison Productions, Universal Music) and recorded at Skyway Studios in Los Angeles. "If you want to hear pop music that is well blended with alternative rock, then From the Ashes" is an album definitely worth adding to your collection."

TWT staff writer Chris Allen caught up with Jay in the VIP lounge at Meteor in Houston to talk to him about his album, his video, his career, and more.

CA: Is Jay Arseno here to inspire, entertain, enlighten, or all of the above?

JA: Well, I would have to say all of the above. I love what I do and I am completely grateful for the gift and ability to be able to sing and write. I also believe that I have a responsibility to myself and to everyone around me to share my experiences through the power of music and hopefully inspire, entertain, & enlighten others in their lives.

CA: What inspired you to choose From the Ashes as your album's name, and more or less your debut single?

JA: The heart of this album is about rebirth and starting over. If there's one thing that I've learned in my life thus far, it's that no matter what life sends your way, you can always pick up the pieces and start over. The album is also about following your hopes and dreams, no matter what anybody else tells you. Be true to who you are and what you want out of this life.

CA: Tell us, briefly, about track 3 on your cd, the masterpiece that is Fire. It has a very reminiscent Duran meets Timberlake feel about it, more 00's than 80's or 90's but familiar nonetheless. With a touch of Linkin Park I must add. Crazy maybe, but so well defined as an ass kickin' track. Solid. Appealing. What is up with this song bro? Luv it.

JA: There's an interesting story behind this song. When I first started working in LA with my producer, RADIO, we were in the studio brainstorming ideas. I had already recorded a track in Dallas with my other producer, but it didn't quite seem to fit with the direction that I wanted to go. RADIO and I were going through his catalog of tracks that he had recorded and he played this one that really caught my attention. I said, "Wait, go back. Did you have any plans for that track?" He said, "No, I had tried to come up with some lyrics for it, but nothing really sounded right, so I just kinda left it unfinished." So, with his blessing, I decided to write for the track and really channeled a break up vibe through the lyrics, a combination of all my past bad relationships. All that anger, resentment, & hurt. How could I express that as something tangible and organic? Then it hit me, FIRE! That's pretty much how the song 'Fire!' came about.

CA: In one form or another, the mythical phoenix is present on your album cover, the ink on your body, and very often on the clothing you wear out and about. As a symbol, what does the phoenix mean to you?

JA: Ever since I was a kid I always had a very active imagination. I loved to read all kinds of books, whether they were about mythology, sci-fi, fantasy, magic, or superheroes. The phoenix has always stood out for me because it represents new beginnings, a fresh start where you can literally leave everything behind and move forward, no matter what. I have always tried to apply that principle in my life and keep a positive attitude.

CA: What song are you the most proud off your album, From The Ashes?

JA: Well, all of my songs are like my kids to me, so it's hard to pick the one that I am most proud of. But if I had to choose one, it would probably have to be my song, Shine! It was one of the last tracks that we recorded for the album and I really think that it really brought everything together. It's just a very feel good; forget all your troubles and just dance, song.

CA: Would you say that lyrically, a bit of this album is kinda semi-autobiographical?

JA: Absolutely! Not all of the songs are completely autobiographical, but each one has little pieces of my life and myself in each of them. Probably the most autobiographical song on the album is the title track, Take It From The Ashes.

CA: What performers or people out there inspired you the most musically, vocally, or both as of late?

JA: Wow, there are soooo many! I'll try to give you the short list. I've always been inspired by Rock, Pop, & Alternative artists from the 90s. For some reason I've always felt a real connection in that era of music. Better Than Ezra, Cowboy Mouth, Live, Bush, Matchbox 20/Rob Thomas, Alanis Morissette, and Duncan Sheik are definitely in my top list of artists that have truly inspired me. One of my biggest writing influences has been Duncan Sheik especially. The man definitely has a gift and I hope to one day be able to work with him.

CA: What instruments do you play, either live or in the studio?

JA: I play a bit of acoustic and electric guitar as well as piano. I mostly play for writing purposes, hard to keep the coordination between singing and playing guitar for me for performance LOL.

CA: Speaking of studio work, what do you think your producers (ROC & RADIO) brought to your album, From The Ashes, which made it different from the demo tracks you started out with? How did they, elevate things?

JA: Working with I-ROC and RADIO was an incredible experience. They really brought a whole other caliber to the table with the quality of recording and with their openness to my ideas. I had an incredible amount of creative control with this album, which was extremely freeing for my writing process. It was a completely awesome experience!

JA: What was the most valuable lesson you learned from working with these 2 incredibly notable producers during your time spent in L.A.?

CA: Well, I learned a couple of lessons actually. Always stay true to your vision and ideas, but also be open to the ideas of those you're working with.

CA: What advice would you give to that guy or girl out there with that dream, the one that your hard work and drive has given you the life that you are actually now living?

JA: NEVER GIVE UP! If you truly have the drive and ingenuity to pursue a career in this profession, then you will succeed. Some other things I would highly recommend would be to learn as much as you can about the music industry. Use the resources that are available to you, especially online. There are literally unlimited resources online that are key for independent artists, USE THEM!

CA: Who was the director of the music video for your debut single, Take It From The Ashes?

JA: The director of the video was Shane Ray from 1013 Productions in Dallas, TX.

CA: Tell me, briefly, a bit about the shoot.

JA: The shoot was a really awesome experience. We shot part of the video on some back roads in Burleson, TX and the rest at the Fort Worth Academy of Fine Arts in Fort Worth, TX. We did the shoot in about 2 days and included a lot of the students from the school and a SWEET '67 Mustang that I got to drive in the video!

CA: Where can folks check out your vid online?

JA: The video is posted on YouTube, my Facebook Page, my MySpace page, and soon will be available for purchase on iTunes.

CA: Where exactly can we check you out online?

JA: You can check me out online at these websites:

www.myspace.com/jayarseno
www.facebook.com/jayarseno
www.twitter.com/jayarseno
www.ike.com/artist/Jay-Arseno

CA: I bet you are looking forward to Gal Pride. Ready to shine?

JA: Most definitely, can't wait to perform with my fellow artists at Galveston Pride, should be a BLAST!

CA: Will you have copies of your album available for folks to purchase at the Galveston Pride Festival?

JA: Yes, I'll have copies of my album available at the merchandise area, along with posters & t-shirts!

CA: Other than at Gal Pride, where else can fans buy From The Ashes?

JA: From The Ashes is available for purchase on iTunes, Amazon, Rhapsody, & CD Baby.

CA: Any thing to add Jay?

JA: YES! Be on the lookout for the Deluxe Version of From The Ashes, which will include remixes (including remixes from DJ C.A.), new songs, and much more! Follow me on Facebook, MySpace, & Twitter to keep up to date! And always remember to 'SHINE'!

In June of 2009, Jay Arseno took the stage at the Houston Gay Pride Festival by storm. He had the audience up on their feet, dancing and cheering. Jay will be performing in the late afternoon / early evening at the Galveston Pride Fest. There is also a free iPhone application available online at the iTunes store. It's pretty damn cool. "When asked what he wants his fans to know about him the most, Jay's response is, 'I'm a real person. I write from my heart and I want that to come across. I'm not the bubble gum pop trend and I want to make a mark on the world.'"

AJ Cabrera

"AJ Cabrera, a country-pop crooner from Clear Lake, survived six weeks of competition to become the third Houston PRIDE Idol. He performed at Pride Houston and at two recent Michael Jackson tributes."* AJ recently performed at this year at WET in Galveston. Check out AJ online at www.myspace.com/adrianjaydin.

Kady Malloy

"Texas native Kady Malloy does not remember a time when she did not sing. Growing up in Houston, Malloy expressed her desire to be on stage from an early age. She credits her determination to pursue this to the full support of her family. Kady Malloy's musical tastes are vast, loving classic rock legends Led Zeppelin & Queen, especially Freddie Mercury, Elton John and Billy Joel, as well as pop sensations Britney Spears and The Spice Girls."*

Audiences across the country fell in love with Kady Malloy when she became a top 24 finalist on season 7 of American Idol. "While the American Idol crown was not in her future, the show introduced Kady to a legion of music fans whom quickly identified with the talented songstress. Since her performance, Kady Malloy has continued her musical journey, finding her own place within the pop world and readying herself to introduce the world to the real Kady Malloy."*

Kady & TWT met in cyberspace for this quick i.m. style interview just last week. Here's the printout.

CA: Outside of your American Idol experience, what has been your most memorable live gig?

KM: My most memorable live gig was when I sang M. Carey's "Hero" at my High School Graduation with one of my best friends, and when I got to open up for Air Supply! (they are awesome dudes!)

CA: Have you been doing any studio work since then?

KM: I have been in quite a bunch of studios since Idol, I'm currently working on quite a few different projects including an album with the very talented Paul Couture! We have written and recorded 5 songs together and I'm super excited about releasing the tunes! You can check them out on my MySpace - www.myspace.com/kadymalloy! I am also about to work with a Grammy winning producer! :) can't name him yet!!! :)

CA: Can we expect an album in the near future?

KM: YES! I am working on several different projects and of those projects I am taking the best 12 songs and releasing them!! :)

CA: As a singer, who inspires you?

KM: The singers who inspire me the most are Elton John, Freddie Mercury, Eva Cassidy, Robert Plant, Garth Brooks, Keith Whitley, Damien Rice, Billy Joel (we have the same B-DAY!) and Britney Spears! (as a performer);)

CA: Any advice for that girl or guy out there with the dream?

KM: My advice for other singers is to always be true to yourself but to be open to all music. I used to think I would never sing a pop song (because my true love is rock music) and then I tried it and it just clicked! I was very uncomfortable at first but now I have come into my own. The more you love music the more music you love. The most important advice I could give to another singer (or any human being!) is to have confidence in yourself and to love yourself. This business is brutal and you have to be your number one fan!

CA: Thanx! Anything you wanna add?

KM: As an artist you have the opportunity to express yourself and stand up for something. Find a cause you believe in and fight for it!!

Kady Malloy was the headliner at Houston's 2009 Pride Festival & Parade, hitting the stage with a flawless set of cover songs and originals just before the parade began at sunset. Fall in love with Kady Malloy all over again at myspace.com/kadymalloy where you will find lots of posted songs, video clips, and pictures.

Derrick Barry as Britney

"Derrick Barry has been a performer all his life. Born and raised in Modesto, California, he began training as a gymnast at the age of 5. After competing for 7 years, at 12 years old, he decided to trade in gymnastics for the Theatre. Derrick showcased his acting abilities in over 20 productions between junior high, high school and college. At the age of 19, he moved to Hollywood to further his passion for the performing arts. Halloween 2003 piloted his new found career of impersonating pop princess Britney Spears. In June 2004, Derrick Barry's talents carried him to the entertainment capital of the world. Derrick became the youngest cast member in the 23 year history of 'An Evening at La Cage' at the Riviera Hotel & Casino on the Las Vegas Strip. He departed from 'La Cage' in the Fall of 2008 after garnering international attention with his Britney Spears act on America's Got Talent."* Learn more about this extraordinary and popular performer at www.derrickinbritney.com.

SATURDAY NIGHT

One of the really fun things about smaller cities like Galveston is their local drag scene, their population's loyalty to it, and the out of town girls it attracts. Like Halo in Bryan / College Station - small town club - big city names. Well this weekend will be no exception for Galveston Island. There will be more drag in Galveston for Pride weekend than on Halloween at a frat house.

Saturday night at Club Groove, located at 2409 Market Street in downtown Galveston, you will be entertained by the uber fabulous drag superstar Jade, from RuPaul's Drag Race. Jade will be joined onstage by Marsha Mellow, CC Ryder, Raichell, Carly Hart Raven, Jami Roberts, & Kristina Vixen Monroe. Jade and the girls will be hosting the Bon Voyage Party for the Divas Cruise that heads to sea on Sunday afternoon. Groove is not officially affiliated with Galveston Pride but is an incredibly popular local dance club. Club Groove stays open for afterhours dancing with resident dj Mickey Wayne kickin' it on the 1's & 2's until 4 am every weekend! Just park there and cab it the rest of the way.

The official Galveston Pride After Party will be at 8 pm at the Pink Dolphin, located on the east end of the seawall at 904 Avenue M - right by the Jack in the Box, where Gayibbean and Gayislander will be hosting a Caribbean luau. Your emcee for the evening will be Toddicus and you will be thrilled by the performance from Pride Cruise entertainer Dee Ranged.

The Gayibbean Pride Halloween Cruise departs Galveston Island at 4 pm on Sunday, on the same ship as the Divas Cruise - the Carnival Conquest. That's a lot of drag for one ship. Damn. Hope they stock extra duct tape and nail glue!

Down the road to the west, at 3rd Coast Beach Bar, ya got more fabulous drag. H-town diva Lana Blake will be joined onstage by SoFonda St John and Erica Andrews. Spinning the tunes that night will be 3rd Coast resident dj Sean. Be sure to head to the rooftop deck and enjoy the gulf winds and starry night. Keep that number for Yellow Cab we mentioned earlier handy tonight too.

For more info on the 2009 Galveston Pride Festival online just Google the words 'Galveston Pride 2009' and check out your options. Facebook. Twitter. MySpace. The list goes on. See ya in Galveston the weekend of October 23rd Texas!

In closing, a special early happy birthday wish to Galveston Pride co-founder Laura Villagrán! Luv u doll. You do so much for the community. We are thankful. Have a grand birthday cruise!

This Week's Art of Strolology

Libra Famous Birthdays

John Mayer, Wyclef John, Zac Efron, Snoop Dogg, Judge Judy Sheindlin, Sofia Vassilieva

Aries (March 21-April 19)

There is a strong spiritual side to your birthday, and many people who are born under this sign have healing hands and abilities. Although you can be feisty and self-assured on the outside, there is a tenderness and sensitivity on the inside. You have refined tastes, and you want to be around things of beauty. Music and the arts will help you connect with your inner spirit. Time spent by the ocean can be especially helpful. Wearing, meditating or surrounding yourself with Skyway honors the passionate side of your personality while enabling you to hear the aesthetic and spiritual calling that awaits you.

Taurus (April 20-May 20)

It is not uncommon for people born under this sign to have a gift for healing, and very often it is the gift of touch. You may or may not be aware of this special talent, but either way, you can have quite an impact on others. You are not afraid to commit to something, and once you do, it can be difficult for you to give it up. Your personal color brings out the beautiful side of your nature. Wearing, meditating or surrounding yourself with the color Creme de Menthe resonates with your diving spirit.

It helps you stay connected to the truth and open to change.

Gemini (May 21-June 22)

People look to you for inspiration. You are one of a kind and are not afraid to be different. Your talent comes from a deep and powerful place. You were born to communicate, so it is important that you are conscious of what you say and do. You have an innate talent for building your dreams and can do well financially. Your personal color resonates with spirituality. Wearing, meditating or surrounding yourself with Violet Ice helps you maintain balance as you share your life with others.

Cancer (June 23-July 22)

You have a strong independent streak, and with proper support, you are unstoppable. You are sometimes your own worst enemy because it is not easy for you to ask for help. Try not to isolate yourself from others. You have a great amount of courage and stamina, so don't let negative emotions drain your energy. Your personal color gives you the courage to trust without losing your sense of self. Wearing, meditating or surrounding yourself with Lilac Marble keeps you lighthearted and confident that you can achieve your goals.

Leo (July 23-August 22)

You were born with a special something. A star like quality radiates from within you. You are a good and loving person. When you care for someone, you care with all your heart. You are empathetic and understand the plight of others. Your personal color helps you guard against going to excess. Wearing, meditating or surrounding yourself with Golden Poppy inspires strength and a renewed sense of hope and self confidence.

Virgo (August 23-September 22)

You have a nice combination of practicality and idealism. Your mind is quick, and you can handle most situations with dexterity and leadership ability. You have a nature that vibrates with class and royalty. It is important for you to have a spiritual connection to life or you may feel lonely or separate. Your personal color resonates with enthusiasm and encouragement. Wearing, meditating or surrounding yourself with Jadesheen helps ease monetary concerns and integrates love with financial security.

Libra (September 23-October 22)

You are innovative and direct in your approach to life. You can succeed in most endeavors and are gifted in many ways. The need for independence combined with your need to share your experiences with a significant partner can be challenging at times. The solution includes balancing your head with your heart. Your personal color helps you move through any emotional indecision. Wearing, meditating or surrounding yourself with Dusty Pink helps you transform your innovative ideas into great works of art.

Scorpio (October 23-November 21)

Your dramatic personality can bring you into the public eye. You can be very influential to others, so it is important that you channel your energy in a well meaning and balanced manner. Too much intensity can cloud the truth, and it is the truth for which you really long. You have a light-hearted side that needs to be honored. A good sense of humor can bring many benefits. Your personal color aligns with the receptive side of your nature. Wearing, meditating or surrounding yourself with Persian Red helps you to attract good fortune.

Sagittarius (November 22-December 21)

There is no cookie cutter that molds your shape. You are different, and you like it that way. Born to intrigue others and give them a little shock now and then, you are quite a character. You are a great friend and a fierce ally. You can be sensitive and articulate or blunt and cutting, depending on the situation or purpose. Try to focus your energy out into the world, where you can make a difference. Your personal color helps you channel your intensity. Wearing, meditating or surrounding yourself with Velvet Morning gives you the necessary strength to take action and make a difference in the world.

Capricorn (December 22-January 19)

Provocative and daring, you are larger than life. Born to perform and to change the status quo, you need an outlet for your creativity and gregarious personality. Your sensuality and appeal is a 10 on the Richter scale. The need to find a balance between your home life and your professional life requires both work and trust. Your personal color encourages you to have a stable structure to support your dreams and aspirations. Wearing, meditating or surrounding yourself with Canyon Rose helps you relax and appreciate every stage of your life.

Aquarius (January 20-February 18)

There is something unusual and provocative about people born under this sign. No one really knows what is going on inside of you. This type of quiet or mystery that is a part of your persona can be very compelling.

You are smart and insightful, and your perceptive skills can be uncanny. Your personal color honors your individual style while allowing you to connect with others on an intimate and profound level. Wearing, meditating or surrounding yourself with Lavender Lustre resonates with the higher aspects of life and embodies the qualities of faith and spiritual unity.

Pisces (February 19-March 20)

You have a good sense of artistry and design. Creative endeavors come naturally to you, especially if you have not ignored or undervalued these inherent traits. Many of you are working on healing emotional wounds from either childhood or family related issues. Using your hands for healing, the arts, or creating beauty is just one of the gifts you can share with others. Your personal color helps refresh your spirit. Wearing, meditating or surrounding yourself with Dawn Pink increases your faith and enthusiasm.

This Week's Dude

Name: Jeff Germany

Occupation: Project Manager

Claim to Fame: My claim to fame started with being a former Mr. TGRA. This position served as a stepping-stone to Mr. Charity America. I was fortunate enough to be Mr. Charity America twice, this last time helping raise over $200,000 for charity across the United States and especially Dallas.

Passion Close to My Heart: I am very passionate about my charity work and being able to give back. Being part of three great organizations allows me to do so, TGRA, Home for the Holidays and The United Court of the Lone Star Empire (UCLSE).

Future Endeavors: As I journey through life I have chosen efforts that allow me to be serve our community. I am running for Emperor 35 of the United Court of the Lone Star Empire. UCLSE is an organization that gives back to the community. Voting for UCLSE is a community vote, so come on out and vote on October 24th at the Resource Center, 10 AM - 3 PM.

Motivations: I am motivated by the suffering and loss I have experienced due to AIDS. I don't want anyone to experience the great losses I have. My best friend Bobby Don Kellar died 5 years ago from AIDS and he still drives me to be a better man and raise more money for charity.

If my sash could talk, it would say... "Why do I get kept in such a nelly carrying case?"

MIDTOWNE

This Week's

We would like to start this segment of tea by just saying that anytime, and we mean anytime, you want to have a great time, just set your GPS to 7th street in Austin, and type in "gay good times", and we are pretty damn skippy that you'll end up at Rusty Spurs, Emerald City, Colors, or as we like to call it, the 3 in 1 stable of hee haw fun. When you have a hanker'in for some good Texas country fun, with a gay flare, this is the spot to stop on your gay adventures through ATX. On to more important tea at the bootscoot-atorium, in this picture of Dane, Crail and the lovely bartender, whose name eludes us at this time.

Dane, sista, honey, if we see you hugged up on our man like this again we will scratch ya eyes out, kisses. Crail, honey, enjoy your brand new, red, Andrew Christian undies. We look forward to catching you in those.

This past weekend we had the wonderful opportunity to be a sponsor of the Octo Tea Dance at the Long Center. DJ Seth Cooper and DJ Roland Belmares kept the multitudes of supporter dancing all night long. Our "First Lady" Jaime Garcia, and our fearless leader Larry Davis attended the party and wanted to let all the supporters and event organizers know, that this year was one hell of a party, and it will be slated on TWT's social calendar for next year.

The party also continued after the Octo Tea Dance over at Rain on 4th as the efforts to raise more money for the Paul Kirby Emergency Fund at AIDS Services of Austin, spearheaded with Rain's mover and shaker, promoter deluxe, Bobby Cook. We just love to hang out at Rain and get our roll on. Next week we'll make sure we have some excellent pictures of the hot college studs that hang at this gay hot spot on 4th.

You already know that if we are at Rain, we are as sure as sugar going to be at Oilcan Harry's. You would be a fool not to. OCH has been booking up all the gayest talent in the lands, and this last Saturday, packed the house with Jackie Beat, and her song parodies that can only be described as nasty-witty-funny. This show was such a huge goings on, that it even brought TWT's long time friend in from LA. We are talking about none other than Jimmy James, a Texas native herself.

Rick Wadley, the new owner of OCH, was there in high spirits as Jackie poked at his funny bone, and it was even rumored that he bought drinks for everyone in the bar just before the show started, or that's what we heard. What ever the case maybe, the show was great, the crowd was jump'in and we hear that Daddy Rick will be booking even more fagstastic shows on top of the ones he already has in the line up. Such as the fierce remixer for Beyonce's Single Ladies, and god father of global groove, DANCE, DJ Escape on October 30th.

Charlie's tea is coming to you very fresh this week as they report the United Court of Austin is holding their Too Twisted for Texas Pageant Queen Event at this Lavaca house of gayness. We know our super dooper good pals, Jeremiah and Monica will be there even earlier as Charlie's will be having free food and plenty of space for the Texas vs O.U. game.

HOOK'EM HORNS!

DALLAS

One might think we just hang out at Hungding-er's cause of the handsome proprietor known as Royce, actually the food is just as delish! We always run into someone full of fun, and this was no different as we rubbed elbows with the guys from Gay Bingo!

Javier, our bestest buddy, make the round about Texas and tonight we caught up to him at RUSH. He was pictured here on the left with a bunch of lovely lads and a lass. We know someone was on stage gyrating to the music if Javier was in town!

The Roundup is always one of our favorite watering holes in Dallas, with a staff as handsome as TJ and Kurt, we know we will have lots of "Man Candy" to look upon as we sip our long necks! Roundup has been home to many events and we look forward to the Halloween fun they will bring to Big D.

Woody's hosted the Thank GLAAD it's Friday event last week and our TWT Dallas camera-guru Brett snapped the oh, so hot Elliot and then again presenting Patirck with his goodies. We were interested in BOTH their goodies, dontcha know - but that is for another TGIF event in Dallas! Texas OU weekend will be awesome at Woody's, Dallas' premiere sports bar!

The Boys at BJ's nxs have been bouncing for a few weeks now, and we caught up with cute couple Ted and Larry in the crowd adoring the beautiful men on display! We love Wanda's show, and they are gearing up for the Texas vs OU party as well!

Finally the top leather/levi club in Dallas, the Eagle, showcased some images of our very own Brett Vander on their walls and the awesome Lady Minx and Evan took a moment to pose with them for us! Lovely to look at! All of them!

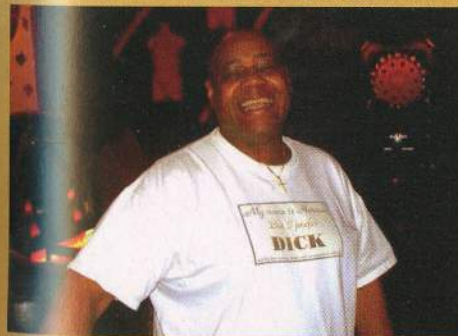

HOUSTON

Houston home of the Astros, Rockets, and $4 Long Island Ice Teas over at Guava Lamp on Thursdays. Son naturally, since the Astros did not make it to the playoffs, so we spent our time sipping strongly made Long Island Ice Teas, and wonder what fabulousness would be coming in the front door of this groovy lounge. It did not take long till in strolled the stunning Kara Dion, who slid right up into our comfy booth and managed to go drink for drink with us. James and Kara both were excellent at keeping our attention as James made sure that the Teas kept coming and Kara made sure that we always had one for her. When your out and about, Guava Lamp is one of the first cocktail spots we like to hit when we are in the mood for great drinks and a fun social atmosphere.

After getting worked up with LI Teas, we always try to catch up on some sports bar socializing. We find that Tony's Corner Pocket is always a nice place to do just that. With Tony running about the place making sure all is having a great time, and our good friend Miss Herman glowing like a ray of sunshine, we find out that this very weekend, Saturday, that ever so tasty, young-n-fine, big dick porn star, Jason Crew will be swinging about this very bar. Literally he will be swinging, leaving us to believe that's why Miss Herman can't stop smiling.

Over at George, another great sports bar, we make sure we keep a regular pulse on all our football on goings as we cheer on the Texans every Sunday. Nothing like downing a few cold one over at this country sports bar, it gives you that warm down home feeling.

As the weekend nights draws upon us, and the Flyboys take flight in the scurry across H-town in search of flawless tea pics. Our ultra hot Flyboy, David, lands atop of DJ Seth Cooper as he was wreck'in the decks this past Saturday at South Beach. The crowd was jump'in and Seth was pump'in and bump'in the house with mixes and tracks that caused the masses to devastate the dance floor with stomped out ruts. Seth Cooper, a long time friend of TWT and former cover boy, has sure been on fire as of late as he has been doing some jet setting and self promotion that has been setting him apart of the pack. Great to see you spinning up a storm at SOBE.

Normally, when you ad water to anything video it is an automatic disaster. Not the case at Meteor, as this Video Lounge has its showers spraying in all the right directions thus causing massive erections...ahem. It rhymed, ha he he he. All jokes aside, Meteor always has some hot studs frolicking around on stage and getting all kinds of wet just for you. If that is not enough, our very own TWT Groovelines God Father, Chris Allen, is found to be dropping mad beats all over the place and even a couple originals of his own.

With all this bar hopping of mass proportions we always like to take time and make sure that any good cause in our community are recognized. Male U Wear and the Flyboys will be hosting the 2nd Annual Male U Wear Teddy Bear Drive for the Osito Foundation. DJ Novvem will be spinning and complementary drinks will be served up by fine ass studs in undies. This is all going on this Saturday, so go grab a bear for a very good cause and perhaps a nice pair of Andrew Christians for you or that special someone.

SAN ANTONIO

We have been receiving many letters of late about "why don't you guys spill some of the darker tea", the answer to that is simple, we can't stand a bitter bitch running up on us asking us why, why, why. Just so you know, I do not hold that same position when writing, and here you go SATX, bitter tea served right up to you from the show cast dressing room of the Saint. A Thursday or two ago, camera in tow, we went up into the Saint to snap pictures of some of the lovely showgirls. To our shock and dismay we were thrown the cold shoulder by several of the "Saint's Gurls" at this opportunity to have their glamour shot placed into TWT. Now gurls like Amber Nix, who was at the Saint celebrating her birthday, gave us mad face for our camera and thus classy acts like Amber keep us coming back to the Saint.

So off we go crossing the bustle of downtown to get to The Bonham Exchange to catch the Lovely Alana Marquez and her wonderful drag show there. No IGG was served there, as Niecy, and Lee always takes care of the TWT staffers and make sure that there joint is running with as little drama as possible. We just love the BX, and so does most of San Antonio. I personally got to run up to a near and dear friend to TWT, Mr. Jenny McCall, who also is a regular at The Saint, as well as Charlie's in Austin, and tell her about the horrible treatment we were dished by some of the Saint's showgirls. Her reply was "honey just sit here on my lap, and we'll talk about these gurls here". Classic McCall, and a classic good time we had at The Bonham.

Later on in the week we stopped by at the Annex to check out the furry daddies and leather studs. We just love the smell of leather on a daddy, specially his leather wallet, ahem hem. Annex is always a great place to cocktail it up and when leaving we always make sure to get safely escorted to our ride by the ever so macho, macho man, Scott. Thanks

Just down San Pedro, we like to make a stop over every once in a while, at 2015. The name of the club as well as its address, it always has a great mellow vibe and is low lit to enhance the vibe. This week I have the pleasure to introduce to Texas my first ever boyfriend, Misha, and some other guy who claimed to "just to be a friend" at the bar at the 2015. But we know it was bartender, Chris! Over 15 years ago Misha and I were a hot and heavy item. He was a dashing, dancing, college student, and I was just a crazed club kid. I am proud to say he is still looking hot. 2015, a great place to find great people, with great drinks served daily.

Over at Essence, we find the whole crew lined up to give face to our cruise cam. This well known location has had some serious changes. With remodeling and Go Go Bois abound at every corner of this bar we stay entertained all night long as the eye candy just does not stop poppin.

Last stop on out tea-capades we head on out to The Heat. We found Christina, A.K.A. Buck hanging out with some of the guys as that night we pounded down shot for shot with Jason bartending. For the record Buck is a bartender, and yes she ended up drinking us under the floor. We'll get you next time honey.
